

Western Society for Physical Education of College Women

Annual Conference: November 20-23, 2008

Asilomar Conference Center
(<http://www.visitasilomar.com/>)
Pacific Grove, California

Talkin'bout a [R]evolution

As the times are always a changing our capacity to address current issues in our field is benefited from knowing and understanding the legacy of our foremothers. Explore with us how to take the best from the past and move into the future.

Keynote Speakers

Laurie Priest from Mount Holyoke College, is a leading authority on women and sports. She has served in numerous professional capacities including President of NAGWS and chair of the AAHPERD Social Justice committee and has received noteworthy professional recognition such as the Mable Lee Award from AAHPERD and the NAGWS Honor Award.

Sharon Shields, a professor of the practice of health promotion and education from George Peabody College of Vanderbilt University is making her second visit to WSPECW. A former NAGWS president, Sharon has been and continues to be a champion for equality for women's sports and activity for girls and women. In addition, she has been a pioneer in service and experiential learning and an advocate for community health services.